The mayor and PD chief of Brooksville get to keep their SCAMERAS for the time being.

But Vice Mayor Lewis and council member Joe Bernardini are starting to see this as the scam RLC truly are. Quote from the St. Pete Times:

<http://www.tampabay.com/news/localgovernment/brooksville-gives-green-light-to-red-light-cameras-again/1110032>

'&quot;However, council members Richard Lewis and Joe Bernardini said they were skeptical of the benefits touted by supporters of the cameras. Both voted in favor of pulling the plug on the program.'

But who can blame them for question a program
THAT REQUIRES LONG TERM VIOLATIONS to be even profitable.

Let us not forgot the two towns that got busted for COOKING THE BOOKS to make it seem RLC were really working:

Chicago: <http://www.thenewspaper.com/news/31/3175.asp>

Houston: <http://www.thenewspaper.com/news/26/2675.asp>

A suggestion for any readers in Brooksville, contact both Lewis and Bernardini and ASK FOR A VOTE by the public. Lets really see how many people in BKV really want the SCAMERAS.
